"There is the falsely mystical view of art that assumes a kind of supernatural inspiration, a possession by universal forces unrelated to questions of power and privilege or the artist's relation to bread and blood...The song is higher than the struggle." ~ Adrienne Rich

A message from the Rabbi

Beth Shalom has come to the point where we are running out of siddurim on Shabbat on a regular basis (a great problem to have!) and are trying to bring in as many of our siddurim that have been borrowed from the shul over the last few years. If you have a CBS siddur at home, and the book is unmarked, please return it to the front office. If the book is marked up, please consider making a donation to the Prayerbook Fund to cover the cost of a replacement, which is $28. We also have Siddur Sim Shalom for sale for $28.95 at the front office if you are interested in a personal copy. Thank you.

Volunteer as a Greeter during Chagim Services

Rosh Chodesh Chavurah

Sunday, 2/21 from 7-7:30pm Social, 7:30-9:00pm Presentation at the home of Michele Yanow

The new month – Rosh Chodesh – is a time for female spiritual renewal, for re-creating, re-newing, re-vitalizing our lives. At Beth Shalom we meet monthly Sunday evening, on or near the new moon. Our meetings are open to all adult women of the congregation. Email Shirah SB@livingwealth.com to be put on the distribution list for upcoming meetings or to offer to lead an evening.

Both Vashti and Esther showed great courage when their lives were at stake: Vashti by saying "No" and Esther by saying "Yes". We will look at women who have demonstrated courage at times other than life threatening situations and will explore how courage shows up in many different ways. You're invited to think about women you admire for their courage. The discussion will be led by Kayla Weiner, a congregant and psychotherapist in private practice. Kayla helps people discover their inner strengths. She personally identifies as a Jewish feminist political activist.
