The new month – is a time for female spiritual renewal, for re-creating, re-newing, re-vitalizing our lives. On Sunday March 16, Pat Hurshell will discuss the partisan resistances (sometimes described as “spiritual” resistances) of Jewish women during the Shoah: how did they manage to embrace and fulfill the painful choices inherent in the new “unwomanly” roles demanded of them? From 7 – 7:30 we’ll have refreshments and chatting; the meeting will be from 7:30 - 9:00. Location – home of Polly Amkraut 7550 41st Av NE. Our meetings are open to all adult women. There are over 5400 soldiers in the IDF, who do not have a home to go to when they are off for the weekends from their army service. Shifra Shahar founded the organization, בית הם לכל חייל Warm Home for Every Soldier, in order to match these lone soldiers with homes and families in Israel. After receiving an adopted family, a lone soldier's life changes dramatically for the good. These soldiers are blessed with loving contacts, warm and comfortable places to stay, home-cooked meals, and laundered clothes with which to return to their base. For more information, please see Shifra's website, www.baitcham.co.il. Please note that Shifra Shahar will also speak on Shabbat, 3/20 after services.
