More Welcome Baskets are needed for formerly homeless moving into Sand Point transitional housing. Previous residents have "graduated" to permanent housing, great news! By Rosh Hashanah the Social Action Committee hopes to prepare five baskets. Needed items include laundry baskets and detergent, kitchen wastebaskets (must have lids) and liners, brooms, dustpans, mops, buckets, wastebasket liners, liquid floor cleaner (Mr. Clean, Simple Green), household wipes, and personal care items such as bar soap, shampoo, conditioner, and mouth wash. There are collection baskets in both upstairs and downstairs foyers with additional information (including item-tags you can take home as a reminder of what to get). Questions? E-mail Judith Arms at jm.arms@comcast.net.

What do we do with the old Mahzorim?

As we prepare to use the new Mahzor Lev Shalem, we invite you to take home the old Harlow Mahzor you donated many years ago. These books will be available for you to sort through, if interested, from this Sunday, until Monday, September 26th from 5pm. We will then offer all remaining books to be taken home on a first come, first served basis. Remaining older mahzorim will then be donated to a community in need of a mahzor.

Prepare CBS for the High Holidays

Sunday, 9/25 from 9am-2pm? - We'll finish earlier if we have more volunteers!

Selichot Program: Working the Steps Teshuvah and the High Holidays Saturday Night, 9/24 - No Charge

9:15pm Havdalah
9:30pm Conversation with Diane Burnett, Alternatives to Addiction Director at JFS
11:00pm Dessert
11:15pm Selichot Services
Selichot marks the start of High Holiday preparations. Teshuvah is the process of asking for forgiveness from those whom we have wronged, and the days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are set aside specifically for this purpose. According to Rabbi David Ebstein, "Teshuvah is a process ... of self-renewal and self-creation that comes about as a result of reflection and a powerful resolution to effect real change in one's life." Many aspects of the 12-steps for recovering from alcoholism/addiction seem to mirror Maimonides' Laws of Teshuvah.
What can we learn from each other as we confront our faults and seek forgiveness?

Buying Club for Delicious, Ethical, Pastured, Kosher Meat! - Just in time for Rosh Hashanah!
Have you been dreaming of kosher meat and poultry that is good for your family, good for the planet, and totally delicious? Dream no more! Grow & Behold Foods is starting a Buying Club in Seattle. Grow & Behold meats are OU Glatt Kosher - No Hormones, No Preventative Antibiotics - Raised on pasture on small family farms. They adhere to the strictest standards of kashrut, animal welfare, worker treatment and sustainable agriculture, AND they taste fantastic-much more flavorful than "industrially raised" meats.

It's very simple: just place your order online at www.growandbehold.com, and pick it up at CBS. Shipping charges will be calculated based on the total weight of all the orders in the buying club. The more orders we get, the lower the shipping charges will be.

A Good and Sweet Year with Shirah Bell
On Rosh Hashanah we wish each other Shanah tovah umetukah (a good and sweet new year). What does "sweet" add beyond the notion of "good"? Many of us focus on correcting our faults and improving ourselves. Could it be that our "sin" is really about our failure to focus on the good and sweet? Come join in exploring the Mussar techniques for a good and sweet new year.

The Fear Factor on Yom Kippur with Jeremy Aik
It is the toughest, but essential reality experience of the Day, and it's the beginning of wisdom (Psalm 111:10), so why are we so "dumb" on that day? Can we get smart?

how many to prepare for.*

So, please spread the word to your friends in other congregations! If this is successful, we'll do several orders per year.
