The new month – Rosh Chodesh – is a time for female spiritual renewal, for re-creating, re-newing, re-vitalizing our lives. On Sunday March 16, Pat Hurshell will discuss the partisan resistances (sometimes described as “spiritual” resistances) of Jewish women during the Shoah: how did they manage to embrace and fulfill the painful choices inherent in the new “unwomanly” roles demanded of them? From 7 – 7:30 we'll have refreshments and chatting; the meeting will be from 7:30 - 9:00. Location – home of Polly Amkraut 7550 41st Av NE
Our meetings are open to all adult women. Email Shirah SB@livingwealth.com to be put on the distribution list for upcoming meetings or to offer to lead an evening.

Shifra Shahar founded the organization, בית הם לכל חייל Warm Home for Every Soldier, in order to match these lone soldiers with homes and families in Israel. After receiving an adopted family, a lone soldier's life changes dramatically for the good. These soldiers are blessed with loving contacts, warm and comfortable places to stay, home-cooked meals, and laundered clothes with which to return to their base. For more information, please see Shifra's website, www.baitcham.co.il. Please note that Shifra Shahar will also speak on Shabbat, 3/20 after services.
